Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today. Please forgive me if I seemed upset, I am sorry. I am a brain injury survivor myself and have PTSD. Sometimes in stressful situations, I have challenges communicating clearly. Here are some examples of some challenges. Now that I know not to contact Dr Giffard with challenges and I will try not to bother you. I do believe that something appears off with past and current referrals and a consumer's right to choose.

Again

All the best,

Thanks David! They are aware of this. If the client doesn't like to see the CBT at her office, they can either work out a different arrangement for a setting for a team meeting of the clients choice or the client can find a different CBT to work with. There is no pressure for the client to go anywhere. Looking forward to speaking further to you Thursday.

Would DSS please ask Care Management to advise the consumer of their right to choose, as they may feel pressured and obligated to go to the SLG location? The SLG CBT is also scheduling weekly CBT services with the consumer at the SLG location.

If the consumer wishes to hold the Team meeting at SLG then yes the ILST should go as part of the team. If he or she is not comfortable going is there another person who knows the client that can attend?
Thanks!

The ABI Resources ILST will be with the consumer at the SLG location for the quarterly ABI Waiver meeting organized by care management. The consumer is receiving SLG CBT services.

I need more context. Is the ILS T attending a team meeting at SLG where the client is receiving other services?

Hello all,
 Coincidentally a quarterly ABI Waiver meeting is scheduled at SLG on December 8th at 10 am.
 The consumer is attending in person with ABI Resources staff.
 With the current concerns and conflict of interests, would DSS or care management please provide a directive, must ABI Resources provide services at the SLG location on the 8th?

All the best,
 David Medeiros
