Dear Mr. Medeiros:

Your October 17, 2024 request sent via MuckRock.com to the Senate Office of Public Records requesting records pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552, and follow-up communications have been referred to our office for response.

Congressional records are not subject to the FOIA as Congress is not an agency for purposes of that Act. See 5 U.S.C. §§ 551(1)(A), 552(f); FCC v. Fox Television Stations, Inc., 556 U.S. 502, 524, 525 n.6 (2009) (plurality) (FOIA "does not apply to Congress" because statutory definition of agency "specifically excludes the Congress"); American Civil Liberties Union v. CIA, 823 F.3d 655, 658 (D.C. Cir. 2016) ("Congress is not an 'agency' under FOIA and, therefore, congressional documents are not subject to FOIA's disclosure requirements."); United We Stand America, Inc. v. Internal Revenue Serv., 359 F.3d 595, 597 (D.C. Cir. 2004) ("Because Congress is not an agency, congressional documents are not subject to FOIA's disclosure requirement."); Mayo v. U.S. Government Printing Office, 9 F.3d 1450, 1451 (9th Cir. 1993).

Accordingly, congressional records, including the records of the Senate, are not available under the FOIA, and we are therefore unable to respond favorably to your request for records.

Sincerely,

Vivian M. Rivera
