Your submission was received by the Office of Special Counsel. In the near future, we will email you to provide more specific information about your filing, including a case number and contact person at OSC. If you filed using our Online Filing Portal, you will receive a second email containing a copy of the information you submitted. Please note: Changes cannot be made using the Online Filing Portal. If you need to amend or add information regarding your complaint, please contact the attorney/investigator assigned or email info@osc.gov.

Please bear in mind that OSC receives a large number of filings each year. While we attempt to handle them as expeditiously as is possible, we generally process them in the order received.
